

OKLAHOMA – CUSHING POLICE DEPARTMENT

Communication Specialist/Detention Officer

The Cushing Police Department is accepting applications for the position of Communication/Detention Officer. Applicants must be at least 18 years of age, have no criminal background, and possess a high school diploma or GED, and a valid driver's license.

Cushing is a diverse community of approximately 8,327 ideally situated less than 1 hour from Oklahoma City and Tulsa. We are also within 30 minutes of Oklahoma State University in Stillwater. In 2013 Cushing Police and Cushing Fire moved into a new multimillion-dollar public safety center.

Do you have a proven history of good conduct, behavior and employment? We invite you to consider joining Cushing Police Department! Applicants should have the skills of problem solving and work productively in a fast-paced environment which requires multitasking.

We will be accepting applications until the position of Communication/Detention Officer has been filled. The City of Cushing offers a generous benefits package and competitive salary beginning at $14.71 - $15.53 per hour depending on experience.

Applications are being accepted until the position is filled. An application may be obtained at the Cushing Public Safety Center, 211 W. Main Street, Cushing 74023 or downloaded here www.CushingPD.com. Any additional inquiries or questions may be directed to the Police Department via email. The City of Cushing is an equal opportunity employer committed to multicultural diversity.